How might a scholarship enable you to attend the course?

Please explain your situation and how a scholarship would benefit you. Please remember that this form of scholarship is offered as a type of “exchange” primarily for those whose current financial situation poses a significant barrier, yet who has also shown a significant desire and readiness for taking the next available YYTT program. Scholarships may also be considered on the behalf of those who wish to offer added skills, work, or experience relevant to the program.

Use the space below to express your situation and give your proposal. Information provided is kept completely confidential.

What level of scholarship are you applying for?
